2. This special civil application is disposed of in the terms that the interim relief, which has been granted by this court on 24/4/97 shall continue till the regular selections are made for the posts of lecturers by G.P.S.C., and the appointments in pursuance thereof by Govt. of Gujarat, Education Department. However, it is made clear that in case the petitioner is not selected for the post then it is open to the respondent to terminate his services without waiting for the posting of the selected candidate on the post. In all eventuality otherwise also the petitioner cannot have any right to continue on the post in case of his nonselection and appointment of selected candidate in his place on the post on which he is working.
